Create file with vim command

Vim (Visual IMproved)

vim is improved version of vi editor which distributed in Unix OS.
vim is very efficient and popular text editor program to work with text file.
vim command is used for create , edit and append data in file.

vim work in 3 modes

1. Command mode
2. Insert mode
3. Extended mode

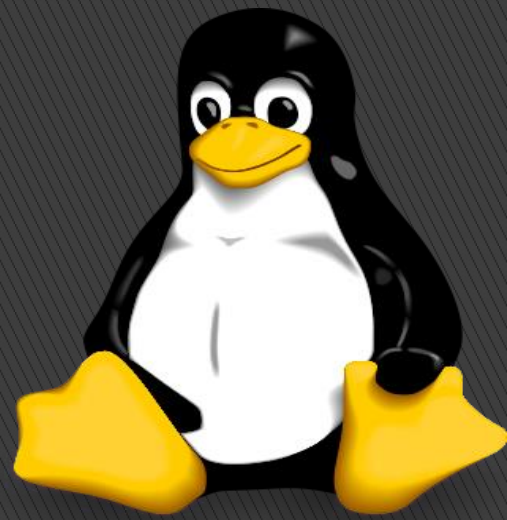
Syntax:

#vim <name of file>

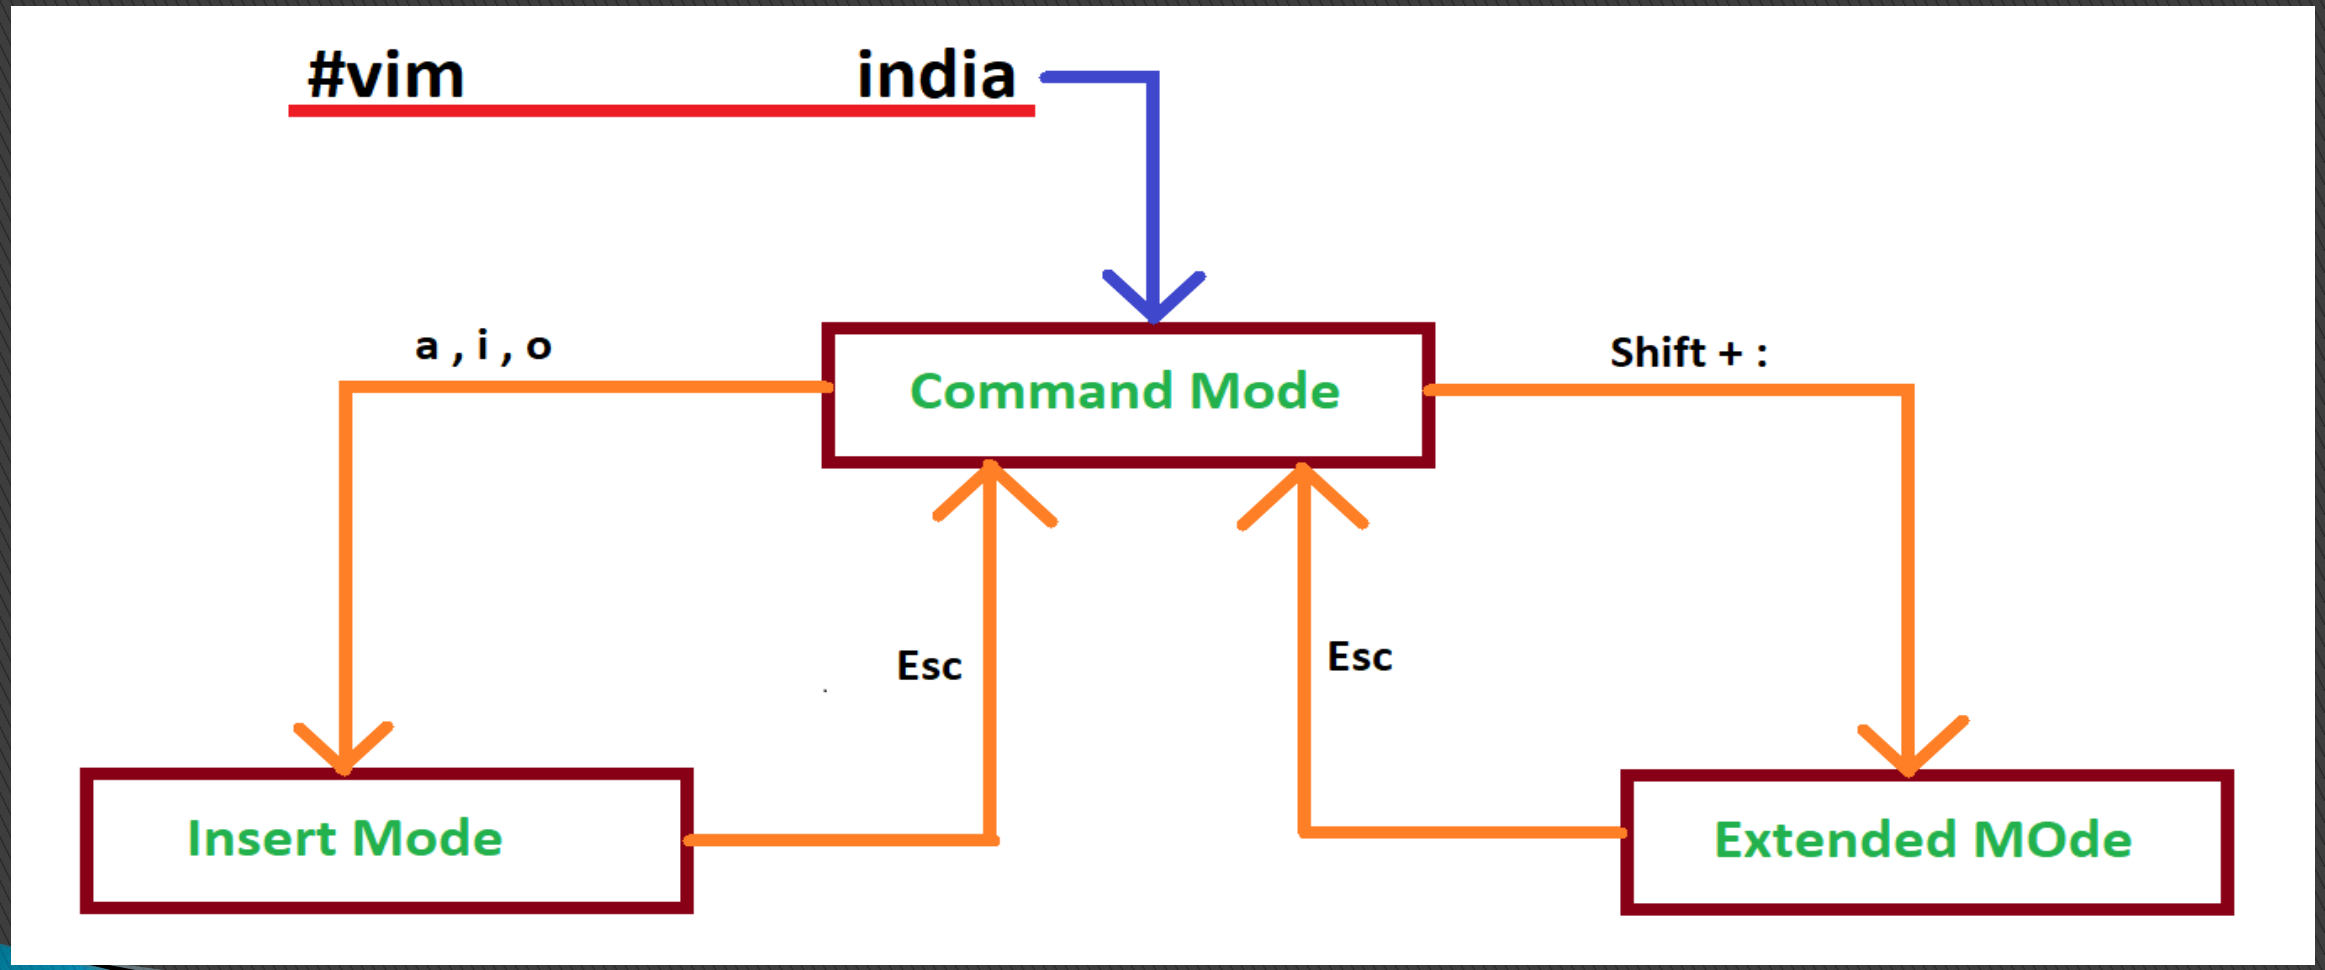
Eg.

#vim india

After press Enter key, by default we comes into command mode

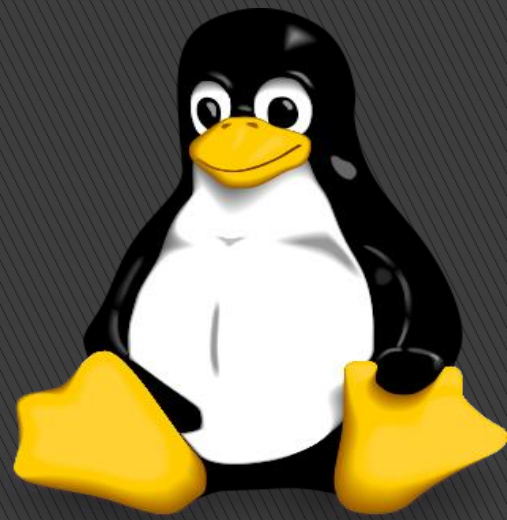


vim working mode



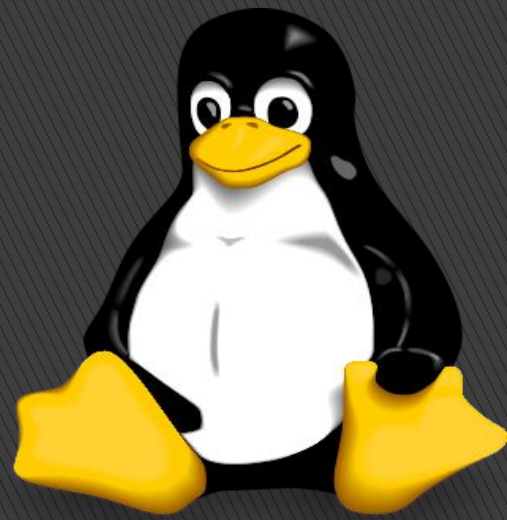
Command mode Operations

yy	For copy line
yw	For copy word
dd	For delete line
dw	For delete word
nyy	For copy number of lines
ndd	For delete number of lines
gg	For go to top of the file
G	For go bottom of the file
p	For paste
u	For undo
Ctrl+r	For redo



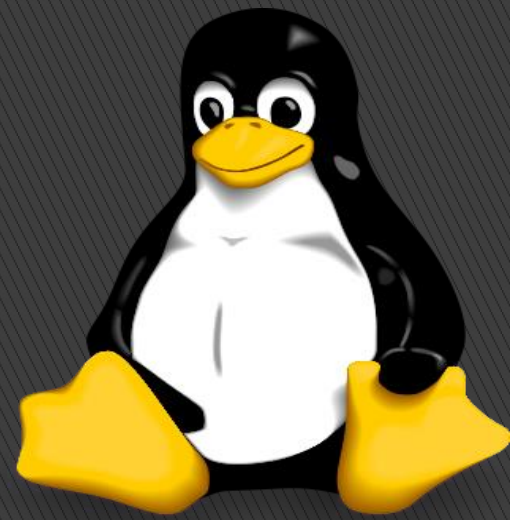
Insert mode Operations

It is used for insert data in a file



Extended Mode Operations

:w For Write (save)
:q For Quit (exit)
:wq For write and quit (save & exit)

Add ! Mark for forcefully operation (eg. :w!)


:se nu For provide serial number to lines
:se nonu For remove serial number of lines